TO THE HONORABLE MARTIN GLENN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Residential Capital, LLC and its affiliated debtors, in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”), as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), respectfully represent:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The Debtors file this thirtieth omnibus objection to claims (the “Thirtieth Omnibus Claims Objection”) pursuant to section 502(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 3007(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and this Court’s order approving procedures for the filing of omnibus objections to proofs of claim filed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the “Procedures Order”) [Docket No. 3294], seeking entry of an order (the “Proposed Order”), in a form substantially similar to that attached hereto as Exhibit 5, to disallow and expunge the claims listed on Exhibit A¹ annexed to the Proposed Order. In support of this Thirtieth Omnibus Claims Objection, the Debtors submit the Declaration of Deanna Horst in Support of the Debtors’ Thirtieth Omnibus Claims Objection (the “Horst Declaration,” attached hereto as Exhibit 1), the Declaration of Norman S. Rosenbaum of Morrison & Foerster LLP, counsel to the Debtors (the “Rosenbaum Declaration,” attached hereto as Exhibit 2) and the declaration of Robert D. Nosek of SilvermanAcampora LLP as Special Counsel (“Special Counsel”) to the Creditors’ Committee for Borrower Issues (the “Nosek Declaration,” attached hereto as Exhibit 3).

2. The Debtors, in consultation with Special Counsel, have examined the proofs of claim identified on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order as well as the books and records the Debtors maintain in the ordinary course of business, and determined that the proofs of claim listed on Exhibit A (collectively, the “No Liability Borrower Claims”) are not liabilities of the Debtors. Such determination was made after the respective holders of the No Liability Borrower Claims were given an opportunity under the Procedures Order to supply additional documentation to substantiate their claim. Accordingly, the Debtors seek entry of the Proposed Order disallowing and expunging the No Liability Borrower Claims from the claims register.

3. The proofs of claim identified on Exhibit A annexed to the Proposed Order solely relate to claims filed by current or former borrowers (collectively, the “Borrower Claims” and each a “Borrower Claim”). As used herein, the term “Borrower” means a person who is or was a mortgagor under a mortgage loan originated, serviced, and/or purchased or sold by one or more of the Debtors.²

4. The Debtors expressly reserve all rights to object on any other basis to any No Liability Borrower Claim as to which the Court does not grant the relief requested herein.

JURISDICTION

5. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

BACKGROUND

6. On May 14, 2012 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition in this Court for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are managing and operating their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy

² The terms “Borrower” and “Borrower Claims” are identical to those utilized in the Procedures Order [Docket No. 3294].

Code sections 1107(a) and 1108. These Chapter 11 Cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

7. On May 16, 2012, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York appointed a nine member official committee of unsecured creditors [Docket No. 102] (the “Creditors’ Committee”).

8. On June 20, 2012, the Court directed that an examiner be appointed (the “Examiner”), and on July 3, 2012, the Court approved Arthur J. Gonzalez as the Examiner [Docket Nos. 454, 674]. On May 13, 2013, the Examiner filed his report under seal [Docket Nos. 3677, 3697]. On June 26, 2013, the report was unsealed and made available to the public [Docket No. 4099].

9. On July 3, 2013, the Debtors filed the Joint Chapter 11 Plan Proposed by Residential Capital, LLC, et al. and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [Docket No. 4153] (the “Plan”) and the Disclosure Statement for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan Proposed by Residential Capital, LLC, et al. and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [Docket No. 4157] (the “Disclosure Statement”). On August 16, 2013, the Debtors filed a revised Disclosure Statement, which includes a revised copy of the Plan [Docket No. 4733], which was further revised on August 20, 2013 [Docket No. 4770].

10. On July 17, 2012, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 798] appointing Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”) as the notice and claims agent in these Chapter 11 Cases. Among other things, KCC is authorized to (a) receive, maintain, and record and otherwise administer the proofs of claim filed in these Chapter 11 Cases and (b) maintain the official claims register for the Debtors.

11. On August 29, 2012, this Court entered an order approving the Debtors’ motion to establish procedures for filing proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No.

1309] (the “Bar Date Order”). The Bar Date Order established, among other things, (i) November 9, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline to file proofs of claim by virtually all creditors against the Debtors (the “General Bar Date”) and prescribing the form and manner for filing proofs of claim; and (ii) November 30, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline for governmental units to file proofs of claim (the “Governmental Bar Date”). Bar Date Order ¶¶ 2, 3. On November 7, 2012, the Court entered an order extending the General Bar Date to November 16, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) [Docket No. 2093]. The Governmental Bar Date was not extended.

12. To date, approximately 6,950 proofs of claim have been filed in the Chapter 11 Cases as reflected on the Debtors’ claims register.

13. On March 21, 2013, the Court entered the Procedures Order, which authorizes the Debtors to, among other things, file omnibus objections to no more than 150 claims at a time, on various grounds, including those set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d) and those additional grounds set forth in the Procedures Order. See Procedures Order at 2-3.

14. Based on substantial input from counsel to the Creditors’ Committee and Special Counsel, the Procedures Order includes specific protections for Borrowers and sets forth a process for the Debtors to follow before objecting to certain categories of Borrowers Claims (the “Borrower Claim Procedures”).

15. The Borrower Claim Procedures generally provide, inter alia, that prior to objecting to Borrower Claims, the Debtors must (i) consult with Special Counsel and provide Special Counsel with a list of the claims at issue, and (ii) review their books and records to determine if any amounts are owed to such Borrowers. For Borrower Claims filed with no or insufficient documentation, prior to filing an objection, the Debtors, in cooperation with Special Counsel, must also send each such Borrower claimant a letter, with notice to Special Counsel, requesting additional documentation in support of the purported claim (the “Request Letter”).

See Procedures Order at 4.

16. In connection with the claims reconciliation process, the Debtors identified the No Liability Borrower Claims as claims filed by Borrowers that (i) contradict the information in the Debtors’ books and records and/or (ii) fail to establish a liability reflected in the Debtors’ books and records.

17. In May 2013, after consulting with Special Counsel, the Debtors sent Request Letters, substantially in the form as those attached as Exhibit 4, to the Borrowers who filed the No Liability Borrower Claims with insufficient or no supporting documentation requesting additional documentation in support of such claims. The Request Letters state that the claimant must respond within thirty (30) days (the “Response Deadline”) with an explanation that states the legal and factual reasons why the claimant believes it is owed money or is entitled to other relief from the Debtors and the claimant must provide copies of any and all documentation that the claimant believes supports the basis for its claim. See Request Letters at 1. The Request Letters further state that if the claimant does not provide the requested explanation and supporting documentation within 30 days, the Debtors may file a formal objection to the claimant’s claim, seeking to have the claim disallowed and permanently expunged. Id.

18. The Response Deadline has passed, and the Debtors either have not received any response to the Request Letters or received insufficient information to establish a basis for liability with respect to the applicable No Liability Claims. See Horst Declaration at ¶ 4; Nosek Declaration at ¶¶ 5, 8.

THE NO LIABILITY BORROWER CLAIMS SHOULD BE DISALLOWED AND EXPUNGED

19. Based upon their review of the proofs of claim filed on the claims register maintained by KCC, and after consulting with Special Counsel and complying with the Borrower Claims Procedures, the Debtors determined that their books and records do not reflect any basis for the No Liability Borrower Claims identified on Exhibit A annexed to the Proposed Order under the heading “Claims to be Disallowed and Expunged.” Accordingly, these proofs of claim do not represent valid prepetition claims against the Debtors. If the No Liability Borrower Claims are not disallowed and expunged, then the parties who filed these proofs of claim may potentially receive a wholly improper recovery to the detriment of other creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases. See Horst Declaration ¶ 7.

20. A filed proof of claim is “deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). If an objection refuting at least one of the claim’s essential allegations is asserted, the claimant has the burden to demonstrate the validity of the claim. See In re Oneida Ltd., 400 B.R. 384, 389 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Adelphia Commc’ns Corp., Case No. 02-41729 (REG), 2007 Bankr. LEXIS 660, at *15 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 20, 2007); In re Rockefeller Ctr. Props., 272 B.R. 524, 539 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2000). Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a claim may not be allowed to the extent that “such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” 11 U.S.C. 502(b)(1).

21. The Debtors diligently analyzed the No Liability Borrower Claims and compared the claims set forth therein to their books and records. See Horst Declaration at ¶¶ 4-6. In addition, the Debtors proceeded to contact those Borrowers who filed the No Liability Borrower Claims whose claims were filed with insufficient or no supporting documentation and request that they provide additional information so that the Debtors could reconcile such claimants' filed claims with their books and records; however, the Borrowers who received the Request Letters either failed to respond to the Debtors' requests or failed to provide sufficient information to establish a basis for liability. See id. at ¶ 4. Consequently, the Debtors, for the reasons set forth on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order under the heading titled "Reason for Disallowance," have determined that their books and records do not reflect any present liability due and owing in relation to each of the No Liability Borrower Claims. See id. at ¶¶ 4-6.

22. More specifically, and as identified on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order under the heading titled "Reason for Disallowance," the Debtors' objections to the No Liability Borrower Claims are generally based on one of the following categories:

(i) General No Liability. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on issues that do not constitute a valid, legal obligation on the part of the Debtors to the Borrowers, including, without limitation, claims relating to Borrowers' requests to reduce loan balances, reduce interest rates and forgive outstanding loan balances (the "General No Liability Claims"). With respect to the General No Liability Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records to determine whether any obligations exist as to these claimants. See Horst Declaration at ¶ 6(i). To the extent that the "Reason for Disallowance" on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a General No Liability Claim, the Debtors determined that none of the Debtor entities recognize any existing obligation to these claimants. See id.

(ii) Origination Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on origination issues (the "Origination Issues Claims"), which include, without limitation, claims relating to interest rates, rights of rescission and defective title exam. With respect to the Origination Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records, including the Borrower's executed Mortgage Note, to determine whether any of the Debtor entities were involved in the origination of the applicable loans. See id. at ¶ 6(ii). To the extent that the "Reason for Disallowance" on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is an Origination Issues Claim, the Debtors determined that none of the Debtor entities were involved in the origination of the applicable loan, and thus have no liability to the claimants in relation to their respective Origination Issues Claims. See id.

(iii) Escrow Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on the application or calculation of escrow amounts (the “Escrow Issues Claims”). For the Escrow Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records to verify whether the escrow payments received by the Debtors were applied correctly and whether the Debtors’ records contained any information to support or refute the bases for the Escrow Issues Claims. See id. at ¶ 6(iii). Such examination included a review of the Debtors’ escrow receipts and payments, the annual escrow analysis sent to borrowers and any servicing notes and written communication with the applicable borrower(s). See id.

To the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is an Escrow Issues Claim: (a) in cases where a claimant asserted that the mortgage payments increased significantly to cover an escrow shortfall, the Debtors determined that the mortgage payments received were all correctly applied; (b) in cases where a claimant asserted that the escrow collected was insufficient to cover the property taxes and insurance, the Debtors determined that they have no liability as long as all amounts received from the borrower were accurately recorded because the Borrowers are liable for the taxes and insurance on their real property; and (c) in cases where a claimant asserted that it was owed a refund, the Debtors determined that any refunds due were previously paid. See id. Moreover, to the extent that the Debtors’ books and records indicated that the issues asserted by a claimant occurred after the Debtors ceased servicing the underlying loan, the Debtors concluded that they had no liability with respect to the claim. See id.

(iv) Wrongful Foreclosure. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based, either directly or indirectly, on allegations of wrongful foreclosure (the “Wrongful Foreclosure Claims”). For the Wrongful Foreclosure Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records to verify that the Debtors foreclosed properly and took the appropriate loss mitigation steps. Such examination of the Debtors’ books and records included a review of the claimants’ payment histories and the Debtors’ internal servicing notes, as well as, when appropriate, the claimants’ loan modification applications, loan modification approval letters, loan modification denial letters, compliance with modifications (trial and/or permanent), compliance with any other payment plans (forbearance and repayment), short sale applications and history, investor guidelines and/or direction, breach letters, and/or foreclosure related documents. See id. at ¶ 6(iv). In addition, where a claimant asserted that he or she did not execute the mortgage note, the Debtors also examined their internal servicing notes to determine whether any previous identity theft claims were alleged, the signatures on other executed documents in the claimant’s file, the payment history and any other information in the Debtors’ possession including tax records reflecting whether the claimant deducted interest on the mortgage. See id. Moreover, where a Wrongful Foreclosure Claim was based on short sale related issues, the Debtors further reviewed its records to determine whether a short sale approval had been requested, and, if so and if such request was denied, whether the reason for denial was proper. See id. Appropriate reasons for denying a short sale request include, without limitation, a claimant's failure to submit executed sale contracts, a claimant's failure to obtain approval from second lien holders and/or a claimant's short sale request did not comply with the requirements of the investor. See id.

To the extent that the "Reason for Disallowance" on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Wrongful Foreclosure Claim, the Debtors, based on the information in their books and records, have determined that they do not have any liability regarding such claims because (a) the applicable Debtor foreclosed properly and took the appropriate loss mitigation steps; (b) there was no evidence of identity theft; or (c) the Debtor's reason for denying a claimant's short sale request was appropriate. See id. Furthermore, to the extent that a non-debtor entity foreclosed on a claimant's property, such foreclosure is beyond the control and responsibility of the Debtors, and the Debtors are not liable for any claims resulting from such actions. See id.

(v) Credit Reporting Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims that are based, either directly or indirectly, on alleged errors by the Debtors in how they reported the Borrower's loan performance to the credit reporting agencies as well as claims alleging that mortgage payments were not applied (the "Credit Reporting Issues Claims"). With respect to the Credit Reporting Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records for evidence that the alleged payments were made, which included reviewing payment histories and the Debtors' internal servicing notes containing information reported to the credit bureaus, as well as any supporting documentation attached to the Credit Reporting Issues Claims. See id. at ¶ 6(v). To the extent that the "Reason for Disallowance" on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Credit Reporting Issues Claim, the Debtors found no evidence of the alleged errors and determined that the Debtors have no liability with respect to such claim. See id.

(vi) Loan Modification Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims alleging that the Debtors either failed to provide a loan modification or provided a loan modification with terms that were not as favorable to the claimant as the claimant believed he or she was entitled to (the "Loan Modification Issues Claims"). With respect to the Loan Modification Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records to verify that the Debtors followed the appropriate guidelines and policies regarding loan modifications. See id. at ¶ 6(vi). Such examination included a review of the claimants' payment histories and the Debtors' internal servicing notes, and, where applicable, loan modification applications, loan modification denial letters, loan modification approval letters, compliance with modifications (trial and/or permanent) and any investor guidelines and/or direction. See id. To the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Loan Modification Issues Claim, the Debtors determined that they had no liability with respect to the claim because the Debtors complied with the appropriate guidelines and policies governing the loan modification process. See id.

(vii) Litigation Dismissed with Prejudice.³ This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on claims for damages related to litigation against the Debtors that was previously dismissed with prejudice (the “Litigation Dismissed with Prejudice Claims”). To the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Litigation Dismissed with Prejudice Claim, the Debtors reviewed their books and records and determined that the Debtor entities have no liability to the Borrowers because the litigation between the Debtors and the Borrower has been dismissed with prejudice as to the Debtors and such dismissal has not been appealed by the Borrower. See id. at ¶ 6(vii).⁴

(viii) Litigation Settled with Release. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on litigation against the Debtors that was previously settled by the parties and included a release of claims by the Borrower against the Debtor entity (the “Litigation Settled with Release Claims”). Accordingly, to the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the No Liability

Borrower Claim is a Litigation Settled with Release Claim, the Debtors reviewed their books and records and determined that the Debtor entities have no outstanding liability to the Borrowers because the relevant litigation has been settled. See id. at ¶ 6(viii).

(ix) Litigation Voluntarily Dismissed. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on litigation against the Debtors that was previously voluntarily dismissed by the Borrower (the “Litigation Voluntarily Dismissed Claims”). A review of the Debtors’ books and records reflect that (a) the Debtors filed dispositive motions in the litigation matters and (b) the applicable claimant dismissed the litigation without prejudice, rather than respond to the Debtors’ motions. See id. at ¶ 6(ix). Therefore, to the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Litigation Voluntarily Dismissed Claim, the Debtors have determined that no amounts are owed to the claimant by the Debtor entities because the relevant litigation was voluntarily dismissed. See id.

(x) Miscellaneous. Certain of the No Liability Borrower Claims are based on unique issues that are not captured by the above categories (the “Miscellaneous Claims”). To the extent that the “Reason for Disallowance” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order indicates that the applicable No Liability Borrower Claim is a Miscellaneous Claim, the Debtors reviewed their books and records and determined that no amounts are owed to the claimant by the Debtor entities for the reasons more fully set forth on Exhibit A. See id. at ¶ 6(x).

23. Accordingly, to avoid the possibility that the parties that filed the No Liability Borrower Claims receive improper recoveries against the Debtors’ estates, and to ensure the Debtors’ creditors are not prejudiced by such improper recoveries, the Debtors request that the Court disallow and expunge in their entirety the No Liability Borrower Claims. Further, the Debtors reserve the right to object on any other basis to any No Liability Borrower Claim as to which the Court does not grant the relief requested herein.

NOTICE

24. The Debtors have served notice of this Thirtieth Omnibus Claims Objection in accordance with the Case Management Procedures entered on May 23, 2012 [Docket No. 141] and the Procedures Order. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

25. No previous request for the relief sought herein as against the holders of the No Liability Borrower Claims has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order substantially in the form of the Proposed Order granting the relief requested herein and granting such other relief as is just and proper.

DECLARATION OF DEANNA HORST IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' THIRTIETH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS
(NO LIABILITY BORROWER CLAIMS – BOOKS AND RECORDS)

I, Deanna Horst, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am the Senior Director of Claims Management for Residential Capital, LLC and its affiliates (“ResCap”), a limited liability company organized under the laws of the state of Delaware and the parent of the other debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, the “Debtors”).¹ I have been employed by affiliates of ResCap since August of 2001, and in my current position since June of 2012. I began my association with ResCap in 2001 as the Director, Responsible Lending Manager, charged with managing the Debtors’ responsible lending on-site due diligence program. In 2002, I became the Director of Quality Asset Management, managing Client Repurchase, Quality Assurance and Compliance—a position I held until 2006, at which time I became the Vice President of the Credit Risk Group, managing Correspondent and Broker approval and monitoring. In 2011, I became the Vice President, Business Risk and Controls, and supported GMAC Mortgage, LLC and Ally Bank in this role. In my current position, I am responsible for Claims Management and Reconciliation and Client Recovery. I am authorized to submit this declaration (the

“Declaration”) in support of the Debtors’ Thirtieth Omnibus Objection to Claims (No Liability Borrower Claims – Books and Records) (the “Objection”).²

2. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge of the Debtors’ operations and finances, information learned from my review of relevant documents and information I have received through my discussions with other members of the Debtors’ management or other employees of the Debtors, the Debtors’ professionals and consultants, and/or Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”), the Debtors’ noticing and claims agent. If I were called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the facts set forth in the Objection on that basis.

3. In my capacity as Senior Director of Claims Management, I am intimately familiar with the Debtors’ claims reconciliation process. Except as otherwise indicated, all statements in this Declaration are based upon my familiarity with the Debtors’ books and records (the “Books and Records”), the Debtors’ schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs filed in these Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, the “Schedules”), my review and reconciliation of claims, and/or my review of relevant documents. I or my designee at my direction have reviewed and analyzed the proof of claim forms and supporting documentation, if any, filed by the claimants listed on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order. In connection with such review and analysis, where applicable, the Debtors and their professional advisors have reviewed (i) information supplied or verified by personnel in departments within the Debtors’ various business units, (ii) the Books and Records, (iii) the Schedules, (iv) other filed proofs of claim, and/or (v) the official claims register maintained in the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases.

² Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Objection.

4. Under my supervision, considerable resources and time have been expended to ensure a high level of diligence in reviewing and reconciling the proofs of claim filed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors diligently evaluated any information provided by the claimants who filed the No Liability Borrower Claims, listed on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order, and, in accordance with the Borrower Claim Procedures, the Debtors proceeded to contact those Borrowers who filed the No Liability Borrower Claims whose claims were filed with insufficient or no supporting documentation and request that they provide additional information so that the Debtors could reconcile such claimants' filed claims with the Books and Records. In May 2013, the Debtors sent Request Letters, substantially in the form as those attached at Exhibit 4 to the Objection, to the applicable Borrowers requesting additional documentation in support of their respective No Liability Borrower Claims. The Borrowers who received the Request Letters either failed to respond to the Debtors' requests or failed to provide sufficient information to establish a basis for liability.

5. The Debtors, based on a thorough review of the No Liability Borrower Claims listed under the heading "Claims to be Disallowed and Expunged" on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order, cannot find any evidence in the Books and Records that reflects any present liability due and owing to such claimants and thus have determined that the Debtor do not have liability for such claims for the reasons set forth in the corresponding column under the heading "Reason for Disallowance."

6. More specifically, and as identified on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order under the heading titled "Reason for Disallowance," the Debtors' objections to the No Liability Borrower Claims are generally based on one of the following categories:

- (i) General No Liability Issues. This category includes those claims relating to Borrowers' requests to reduce loan balances, reduce interest rates and forgive outstanding loan balances (the “General No Liability Claims”). With respect to the General No Liability Claims, the Debtors examined the Books and Records to determine whether any obligations exist as to these claimants and found that none of the Debtor entities recognize any existing obligations to these claimants.

(ii) Origination Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on origination issues (the “Origination Issues Claims”), which include, without limitation, claims relating to interest rates, rights of rescission and defective title exam. With respect to the Origination Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records, including the Borrower’s executed Mortgage Note, to determine whether any of the Debtor entities were involved in the origination of the applicable loans. The Debtors found that none of the Debtor entities were involved in the origination of the applicable loans, and thus have no liability to the claimants in relation to their respective Origination Issues Claims.

(iii) Escrow Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on the application or calculation of escrow amounts (the “Escrow Issues Claims”). For the Escrow Issues Claims, the Debtors examined the Books and Records to verify whether the escrow payments received by the Debtors were applied correctly and whether the Debtors’ records contained any information to support or refute the bases for the Escrow Issues Claims. Such examination included a review of the Debtors’ escrow receipts and payments, the annual escrow analysis sent to borrowers and any servicing notes and written communication with the applicable borrower(s).

In cases where a claimant asserted that the mortgage payments increased significantly to cover an escrow shortfall, the Debtors determined that the mortgage payments received were all correctly applied. In addition, in cases where a claimant asserted that the escrow collected was insufficient to cover the property taxes and insurance, the Debtors determined that they have no liability as long as all amounts received from the borrower were accurately recorded because the Borrowers are liable for the taxes and insurance on their real property. Moreover, in cases where a claimant asserted that it was owed a refund, the Debtors determined that any refunds due were previously paid. Furthermore, to the extent that the Books and Records indicated that the issues asserted by a claimant occurred after the Debtors ceased servicing the underlying loan, the Debtors concluded that they had no liability with respect to the claim.

(iv) Wrongful Foreclosure. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based, either directly or indirectly, on allegations of wrongful foreclosure (the “Wrongful Foreclosure Claims”). For the Wrongful Foreclosure Claims, the Debtors examined the Books and Records to verify that the Debtors foreclosed properly and took the appropriate loss mitigation steps. Such examination of the Debtors' books and records included a review of the claimants' payment histories and the Debtors' internal servicing notes, as well as, when appropriate, the claimants' loan modification applications, loan modification approval letters, loan modification denial letters, compliance with modifications (trial and/or permanent), compliance with any other payment plans (forbearance and repayment), short sale applications and history, investor guidelines and/or direction, breach letters, and/or foreclosure related documents. Additionally, where a claimant asserted that he or she did not execute the mortgage note, the Debtors also examined their internal servicing notes to determine whether any previous identity theft claims were alleged, the signatures on other executed documents in the claimant's file, the payment history and any other information in the Debtors' possession including tax records reflecting whether the claimant deducted interest on the mortgage. Moreover, where a Wrongful Foreclosure Claim was based on short sale related issues, the Debtors further reviewed its records to determine whether a short sale approval had been requested, and, if so and if such request was denied, whether the reason for denial was proper. Appropriate reasons for denying a short sale request include, without limitation, a claimant's failure to submit executed sale contracts, a claimant's failure to obtain approval from second lien holders and/or a claimant's short sale request did not comply with the requirements of the investor.

The Debtors, based on the information in the Books and Records, determined that they do not have any liability with respect to the Wrongful Foreclosure Claims because (a) the applicable Debtor foreclosed properly and took the appropriate loss mitigation steps; (b) there was no evidence of identity theft; or (c) the Debtor's reason for denying a claimant's short sale request was appropriate. Furthermore, to the extent that a non-debtor entity foreclosed on a claimant's property, such foreclosure is beyond the control and responsibility of the Debtors, and the Debtors are not liable for any claims resulting from such actions.

(v) Credit Reporting Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims that are based, either directly or indirectly, on alleged errors by the Debtors in the way they reported the Borrower's loan performance to the credit reporting agencies as well as claims alleging that mortgage payments were not applied (the "Credit Reporting Issues Claims"). With respect to the Credit Reporting Issues Claims, the Debtors examined the Books and Records for evidence that the alleged payments were made, which included reviewing payment histories and the Debtors' internal servicing notes containing information reported to the credit bureaus, as well as any supporting documentation attached to the Credit Reporting Issues Claims. The Debtors found no evidence of the alleged errors and determined that the Debtors have no liability with respect to such claims.

(vi) Loan Modification Issues. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims alleging that the Debtors either failed to provide a loan modification or provided a loan modification with terms that were not as favorable to the claimant as the claimant believed he or she deserved (the “Loan Modification Issues Claims”). With respect to the Loan Modification Issues Claims, the Debtors examined their books and records to verify that the Debtors followed the appropriate guidelines and policies regarding loan modifications. Such examination included a review of the claimants’ payment histories and the Debtors’ internal servicing notes, and, where applicable, loan modification applications, loan modification denial letters, loan modification approval letters, compliance with modifications (trial and/or permanent) and any investor guidelines and/or direction. The Debtors determined that they had no liability with respect to such claims because the Debtors complied with the appropriate guidelines and policies governing the loan modification process.

(vii) Litigation Dismissed with Prejudice.³ This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on claims for damages related to litigation against the Debtors that was previously dismissed with prejudice (the “Litigation Dismissed with Prejudice Claims”). The Debtors reviewed the Books and Records and determined that the Debtor entities have no liability to the Borrowers because the litigation between the Debtor and the Borrower has been dismissed with prejudice as to the Debtors. In addition, such dismissal has not been appealed by the Borrower.

(viii) Litigation Settled with Release. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on litigation against the Debtors that was previously settled by the parties and included a release of claim by the Borrower against the Debtor entity (the “Litigation Settled with Release Claims”). The Debtors reviewed the Books and Records and determined that the Debtor entities have no outstanding liability to the Borrowers because the relevant litigation has been settled.

(ix) Litigation Voluntarily Dismissed. This category includes No Liability Borrower Claims based on litigation against the Debtors that was previously voluntarily dismissed by the Borrower (the “Litigation Voluntarily Dismissed Claims”). A review of the Debtors’ Books and

Records reflect that (a) the Debtors filed dispositive motions in the litigation matters and (b) the applicable claimant dismissed the litigation without prejudice, rather than respond to the Debtors' motions. Accordingly, the Debtors determined that no amounts are owed to the claimant by the Debtor entities because the relevant litigation was voluntarily dismissed.

(x) Miscellaneous. Certain of the No Liability Borrower Claims are based on unique issues that are not captured by the above categories (the "Miscellaneous Claims"). The Debtors reviewed the Books and Records and determined that no amounts are owed to the claimant by the Debtor entities for the reasons more fully set forth on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order.

7. If the No Liability Borrower Claims are not disallowed and expunged, the parties asserting such claims may potentially receive an improper distribution on account of the asserted liabilities to the detriment of other claimants.

8. Before filing this Objection, the Debtors fully complied with the Borrower Claim Procedures set forth in the Procedures Order, including consulting with Special Counsel as to the scope of the Objection.

9. Accordingly, based upon this review, and for the reasons set forth in the Objection and Exhibit A to the Proposed Order, I have determined that each No Liability Borrower Claim that is the subject of the Objection should be accorded the proposed treatment described in the Objection.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION OF NORMAN S. ROSENBAUM IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' THIRTIETH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS
(NO LIABILITY BORROWER CLAIMS – BOOKS AND RECORDS)

Norman S. Rosenbaum, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, declares under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a partner in the law firm of Morrison & Foerster LLP (“M&F”). M&F maintains offices for the practice of law, among other locations in the United States and worldwide, at 1290 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10104. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice before this Court and the courts of the State of New York. By this Court’s Order entered on July 16, 2012, M&F was retained as counsel to Residential Capital, LLC and its affiliated debtors (the “Debtors”).

2. I submit this declaration (the “Declaration”) in support of the Debtors’ Thirtieth Omnibus Objection to Claims (the “Objection”) and in compliance with this Court’s Order entered March 21, 2013, pursuant to section 105(a) of Title 11, United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rules 1009, 3007 and 9019(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure approving: (i) Claim Objection Procedures; (ii) Borrower Claim Procedures; (iii) Settlement Procedures; and (iv) Schedule Amendment Procedures [Docket No. 3294] (the “Claims Objection Procedures Order”).

3. It is my understanding that in connection with the filing of the Objection, the Debtors have complied with the Claim Objection Procedures. I have been advised by M&F attorneys under my supervision that in accordance with the Claims Objection Procedures Order, prior to filing the Objection, the Debtors’ personnel: (i) provided SilvermanAcampora LLP as Special Counsel to the Creditors’ Committee for Borrower Issues (“Special Counsel”) with a preliminary Borrower Claim List¹ which included each proof of claim that the Debtors intended to include in the Objection (the “Objection Claim List”); and (ii) conferred with Special Counsel to ensure the accuracy of that list, and agreed with Special Counsel on a final Objection Claim List. In arriving at the final Objection Claim List, I am further advised that the Debtors first reviewed that list and the corresponding proofs of claim to determine if such claims actually contradicted the information in the Debtors’ books and records, and thereafter, the Debtors conferred with Special Counsel and agreed that each claimant on the Objection Claim List should receive a request letter.

4. I am further advised that the Debtors also conferred with Special Counsel in drafting the Request Letter. To the best of my knowledge, the Debtors sent a Request Letter to those Borrowers that the Debtors and Special Counsel agreed should receive a Request Letter, with the Debtors providing copies of such letters to Special Counsel.

5. To the best of my knowledge, prior to the filing of the Objection, both the Debtors and Special Counsel have fully complied with all other relevant terms of the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

Request Letters

Claim Number:

Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this letter because you or someone on your behalf filed a Proof of Claim form in the jointly-administered chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), GMAC Mortgage, LLC and other affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (the "ResCap bankruptcy case") and we need additional information from you regarding the claims you are asserting against the Debtors.

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We received and reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form and document(s), if any, that you filed in the ResCap bankruptcy case. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference. We are unable to determine from the Proof of Claim form and the document(s), if any, you submitted why you believe you are owed money or other relief from one of the Debtors. In order to evaluate your claim, we need to understand why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one of the Debtors.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than June 17, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than June 17, 2013 with an explanation that states the legal and factual reasons why you believe that one of the Debtors owed you money as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases) and, you must provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for your claim. Included with this letter is a form to assist you in responding to our request.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the requested explanation and supporting documentation by no later than June 17, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim, and your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for your claim.

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim.

Note: The Debtors previously provided notices about their bankruptcy filings and the claim process to current customers and mortgage loan applicants. You may have received one or more of those notices.

Nothing in those notices and nothing in this letter changes your obligations under your mortgage loan agreement (i.e. if you were obligated to make, or were making, mortgage loan payments before the ResCap bankruptcy case commenced, you should continue to make mortgage loan payments). However, if the only reason you filed a Proof of Claim was because you received a notice from the Debtors and you do not believe that ResCap, GMAC Mortgage or any of the other Debtors owes you money or other relief, please reply to us via email or letter stating so. This information is necessary to evaluate your claim.

Claims to be Disallowed and Expunged

142	Yoel Atzmon c/o10 Rita Place Non-Domestic Copiague, NY 11726	4155	11/09/2012	$0.00 Administrative Priority $0.00 Administrative Secured $5,250,000.00 Secured $0.00 Priority $0.00 General Unsecured	Residential Capital, LLC	12-12020	Miscellaneous Claim. In support of this claim, claimant attaches a series of irrelevant and incomprehensible documents, including, for example, a "Notice of Administrative Judgment," "Notice to Setoff Accounts, Mortgage Statement of Account/Money Order," "Notice of International Commercial Claim Administrative Remedy" "Notice of Fault in Dishonor, Opportunity to Cure," "Substitution of Trustee," and "Deed of Full Reconveyance." These documents are all legally meaningless and virtually indecipherable. Mr. Atzmon's assertion appears to be that, by the delivery of these documents and because GMAC did not respond as he directed, Mr. Atzmon now claims to have unilaterally rescinded the loan, substituted a company called "Picture Perfect" as Trustee (purporting to unilaterally replace Deutsche Bank as Trustee), and reconveyed the property to himself. These documents are without legal or factual basis or meaning and must be disregarded by this Court.	12
